The Spirit of America

"Reflected in the mirror of time we see a hazy, seemingly distant past. Though we often perceive the past as being remote from ourselves, the events of yore are much the same, with us having changed little from those who fought for freedom 200 years ago . . .

RICHARD SOMERS

The Spirit of America

Taking a good look into the time-worn depths of the mirror, we see the wire-rimmed glasses of a previous generation, long hair in all its glory, and revolution in the eyes of the young. Within the misty span of years, the past seems to gradually intermingle with the present. We see the same rebels, but they have now changed their costumes from colonial garb to faded dungarees. Reflected still is the same image, determination, and conviction.

We loudly declare to ourselves, if not to the world, our independence. To achieve full independence, we must start with knowledge. With this comes the freedom to choose our own path and the ability to share genuine liberty with others. This is the true spirit of '76."

Patricia Griendling
'76

I came upon a child of God
He was walking along the road
And I asked him, where are you going
And this he told me

I'm going on down to Yasgur's farm
I'm going to join in a rock 'n' roll band
I'm going to camp out on the land
And try an' get my soul free

Then can I walk beside you
I have come to lose the smog
And I feel to be a cog in something turning
Well maybe it is just the time of year
Or maybe it's the time of man
I don't know who I am
But life is not learning

By the time we got to Woodstock
We were half a million strong
And everywhere there was song and celebration
And I dreamed I saw the bombers
Riding shotgun in the sky
And they were turning into butterflies
Above our nation

- Joni Mitchell

Faculty Faculty, Students Complete Bicentennial Questionnaire

On our country's 200th birthday, we think of ourselves as citizens, as contributors to the great and the sometimes not so great America that we live in. This bicentennial time causes us to reflect on the relationship and the responsibility we have towards our nation. The staff asked members of the faculty and members of the student body to comment on some timely questions: What right would you add to the Bill of Rights? Basically, are you a rebel? How would you change the country? What is the most important freedom to you? What is an artist? These questions evoked some interesting responses - not completely optimistic but all very honest. The responses on the following pages show us what people in the year 1976 are thinking.

Diane,
Remember the cafeteria sixth period and all the nutty talks with Cheese and Fred. I'll miss eating and talking (which I do best). After you get out of school in January, indulge yourself and take a trip somewhere.
